

You're Invited Operationalizing School Safety Training

HOSTED BY:

Circle of Trust
Training Systems

An interactive, scenario-driven workshop that equips educators, administrators, and first responders with the tools to build, strengthen, and operationalize school safety teams.

Beyond theory, its practical, hands-on training designed to unite your team for the realities of crisis preparedness, response and recovery.

EVENT DETAILS

LOCATION:

Gail & Michael Yanney Pavillion
2022 W 11th St.
Kearney, NE 68845

DATE:

November 21, 2025

TIME:

8:30 AM – 4:00 PM

COST:

FREE to attend
Coffee & Lunch Provided

INSTRUCTORS

Learn from those who have lived school safety.

Chris Zimmerman

Former classroom teacher. Current Principal of Cimarron Middle School.

Ian Lopez

Former law enforcement officer. Current Director of Cherry Creek District Security.

Scott Stemper

Former law enforcement officer and Emergency Operations Planning Specialist for the Nebraska Department of Education

Who should attend?

- District Leaders
- School and District Safety and Security Staff
- School Administrators
- Law Enforcement, EMS, Fire
- Community Safety Partners

Training Highlights

- Unit 1: Introduction
- Unit 2: Building Your Circle of Trust Team
- Unit 3: Communication in Crisis
- Unit 4: Foundations of Safety Systems
- Unit 5: School Roles in Crisis
- Unit 6: District Roles in Crisis
- Unit 7: Law Enforcement & First Responders
- Unit 8: Lessons Learned in Lockdown
- Unit 9: Reflections

Learning Outcomes

- Build a functioning school and/or district safety team
- Communicate effectively under crisis conditions
- Align roles and responsibilities across staff, district leaders, and first responders
- Apply Emergency Operations Plans and Incident Command System practices
- Return with immediately usable tools and tabletop exercises

Scan Me

Scan to Register and Learn More

Have questions? Email Amyla Boles at aboles@getredbag.com or visit www.c2tsystems.com.